Day 2 : Hanoi – Sapa

After breakfast and check out from the hotel, you will be heading to Sapa on a 5-hour drive, where you can admire the scenic view of the North West mountains of Vietnam. Upon arrival, visit Cat Cat Village, which is inhabited by the Hmong people. Explore the village to experience their daily life and cultural practices and you may also visit the old Hydroelectric Power Station located next to village. Afterwards, you will be driven to the Sapa town to visit the busy market where Red Dao, Black & Flower Hmong, Tay and other ethnic minority people converge from the surrounding countryside to sell their silverware and handicrafts. Continue to visit Sapa French Church, an iconic landmark in the heart of Sapa, built in 1935 during the French colonial era. Transfer to the hotel for check in and overnight in Sapa.

Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Day 3 : Sapa – Fansipan – Sapa

After breakfast at the hotel, visit Fansipan mountain by the world's longest and highest cable car. Your cable car ride will start from Sapa town in the Lao Cai Province 3,143 meter to the peak of Fansipan Mountain which is also known as Indochina's rooftop. Enjoy the mesmerizing view of the lush green and subtropical vegetation from the mountain top and be sure to take some pictures to capture the unforgettable experience. Afterwards, return to Sapa via the cable car and continue to visit Rong May Glass Bridge (Dragon in Cloud Glass Bridge). Perched 2,000 meters above sea level, the bridge offers breathtaking views of terraced green tea fields, rolling hills, and majestic mountains, leaving visitors in awe. Return to the hotel for check in and overnight in Sapa.
