Day 2 Casablanca – Marrakech

After breakfast at the hotel, check out and transfer to Marrakech that is known as the "Red City" for its striking red and ochre architecture. Start with a visit to Koutoubia Mosque, famous for its towering minaret and intricate tilework. Proceed to visit Bahia Palace, a stunning 19th-century palace known for its intricate Moroccan architecture, lush gardens, and beautifully decorated rooms. Then, visit Jemaa el-Fnaa Square and the medina, UNESCO World Heritage sites where you can experience the vibrant souks (traditional markets) and cultural life of Marrakech. Check in to your hotel, dinner and overnight in Marrakech. B/D

Day 3 Marrakech – Ouarzazate

After breakfast and check out from the hotel, depart to Ouarzazate. The journey to Ouarzazate will take approximately 4 hours drive where you will cross the High Atlas Mountains and the pass of Tizi n'Tichka. The drive from Marrakech to Ouarzazate is anything but boring, offering stunning panoramic views along the way and you will have plenty of opportunities to stop and capture memorable photos of the breathtaking scenery. Before arriving at your destination, en route to Ait Ben Haddou, a well-preserved example of traditional earthen building in the shape of an old fortified village in the Ounila Valley, before you reach your destination. Transfer to your hotel. Dinner and overnight at Ouarzazate. B/D

Day 4 Ouarzazate – Tinghir – Erfoud – Merzouga

After breakfast at the hotel, depart to Tinghir (3 hours). Visit Todra Gorges which was carved over millennia by the Todra River, these gorges feature towering limestone cliffs that soar up to 400 meters (1,312 feet) on either side, creating a dramatic and narrow canyon that winds through the rugged landscape. On your way to Erfoud, pass by Kelaat M'gouna also known as the "Valley of Roses". It is a picturesque town located in the Dades Valley of the High Atlas Mountains in Morocco. It is renowned for its abundant rose fields, which bloom in late April to May. Upon arrival in Erfoud, check in to your hotel in Merzouga. Dinner and overnight in Merzouga. B/D
