Day 1 Arrival – Beijing

Upon arrival at Beijing Daxing International Airport, you will be greeted and transferred to the hotel for check in. Head to Niu Jie Mosque, the largest and oldest mosque in Beijing, with a history of more than 1000 years. Next, visit Tiananmen Square, one of the largest public squares in the world and a key symbol of Chinese history. This vast area has been the site of significant events, including the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Afterward, explore the Forbidden City, the world's largest imperial palace and one of the best-preserved wooden structures globally. This historical site offers insights into the social changes of late-dynastic China, particularly its rituals and court life. Then, head to Wangfujing Shopping Street, China's top shopping destination with a long history, earning it the nickname "Golden Street" of Beijing. Return back to the hotel. Overnight in Beijing.

Lunch / Dinner

Day 2 Beijing

After breakfast at the hotel, go on a city tour to the Great Wall, an iconic construction project that represents national security and protection. You will visit Juyongguan, a remarkable segment of the Ming Dynasty Great Wall known as one of the "Three Great Passes." This impressive section, set in rugged terrain, served as a crucial defensive gateway for Beijing. Next, explore the Burning Cream Center, renowned for its Chinese herbal creams that address various skin issues such as pain, itching, fungal infections, and wounds. Afterwards, visit the Beijing 2008 Olympic National Stadium, also known as the "Bird's Nest," a landmark symbolizing Beijing's role in the 2008 Olympic Games. Then, head to the expansive Hongqiao Market, where you can browse a wide array of products, including electronics, fashion, handicrafts, and pearls. Return back to the hotel. Overnight in Beijing.

Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Day 3 Beijing – Xian

After breakfast and check out from the hotel, you will visit the Summer Palace, China's largest and most well-preserved imperial garden. Afterwards, visit Jewelry City to find some affordable gems. Next, you will be transferred to Xian by bullet train (about 4.5 to 6 hours). Head to the hotel for check in. Overnight in Xian.

Day 4 Xian

After breakfast at the hotel, visit the Museum of the Qin Terracotta Warriors and Horses, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most significant archaeological finds globally. It features three exhibition halls, the largest measuring 180 meters by 60 meters, showcasing the ongoing excavation of an army of 8,000 terra-cotta soldiers and horses that guard the tomb of Qin Shihuang, the first emperor of unified China. Then, proceed for a tour to the Three-Color Ceramic Factory to learn about the process of making terracotta. Next, visit the Great Mosque, one of China's oldest and largest mosques, for prayers. Afterwards, head to Bell & Drum Tower Square and explore the famous Muslim Quarter, known for its variety of halal snacks. Return back to the hotel. Overnight in Xian.

Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Day 5 Xian – Departure

After breakfast and check out from the hotel, you will visit Xi'an Museum which showcases over 130,000 relics from ancient China. Next, explore the Small Wild Goose Pagoda, a square, brick structure with fifteen stories and multi-eave design. Stop by at Dongxin Mosque for prayers. Continue to the Ancient City Wall, built in the early Ming Dynasty (1378), which has served both as a formidable defense system and a symbol of Xi'an for 600 years. Afterwards, head to the North Square of the Big Wild Goose Pagoda to see Asia's largest music fountain. Visit the Grand Tang Dynasty Ever Bright City, a captivating recreation of ancient Xi'an featuring lively markets, engaging performances, and beautiful Tang-style architecture. Then, you will be transferred to Beijing Daxing International Airport for your departure.
