Day 1 Delhi

Upon arrival in Delhi, you will be transferred to your hotel for check in. After freshen up, you will be taken to visit the Red Fort. It is one of the most magnificent places in the world, with its sandstone walls rising 33 meters above the bustle of city streets. Built by Shah Jahan in 1638, it epitomizes the power of the Mughal Empire. Next, visit Jama Masjid. - its courtyard can hold up to 25,000 devotees. Two 40-m-high minarets and three great gates are part of the lavishly decorated mosque and the interior is decorated with red sandstone and white marble. Overnight in Delhi.

No Meals

Day 2 Delhi

After breakfast at the hotel, proceed for a full-day city tour of Old and New Delhi. Visit Humayun's Tomb, Safdarjang Tomb and Hazrat Nizamuddin Auliya. The tomb represents Hazrat Amir Khusro (R.A.), one of the greatest and most influential Sufi saints of the Indian subcontinent. Next, visit the Lodhi Tomb and Qutub Minar. The Qutub Minar was built as a victory tower by Qutab-ud-din Aibak following the defeat of Delhi's last Hindu kingdom. Five distinct stories of these 73 m-high towers are marked by balconies. Return back to the hotel. Overnight in Delhi.

B/L/D

After breakfast at the hotel and check out, depart to Ajmer (2 hours). Upon arrival, proceed to Dargah Sharif, the shrine of Khwaja Moinuddin Chisti. Next, visit Adhai Din Ka Jhonpra. It is a historical mosque in the city of Ajmer in Rajasthan, India and one of the oldest mosques in India. Afterwards, visit Ana Sagar Lake. This manmade lake was built by Anaji Chauhan (grandfather of Prithviraj Chauhan) during 1135–1150 AD. On its bank is a pleasant park, the Daulat Bagh, containing a series of marble pavilions erected in 1637 by Shah Jahan. One can witness the beautiful sunset while boating on Ana Sagar Lake. Sprawling across 13 km, the pond captures the picturesque beauty of Ajmer. Upon arrival in Ajmer, check-in at the hotel. Overnight in Ajmer.

Day 6 Ajmer - Jaipur

After breakfast at the hotel and check out, visit Amber Fort, the ancient capital of the Rajput Empire that was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Some attractions include the Sheesh Mahal, Dewan-e-Khas and Dewan-e-Aam. Stop at Hawa Mahal for a photo stop. It is a beautiful pink-colored building with many small windows from which the Royal Ladies watched the annual procession of the kingdom. Next, proceed to the City Palace where you can visit the Museum, which is a part of the Chandra Mahal. Continue to Jantar Mantar, an observatory that is home to the largest stone sundial in the world and has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In the afternoon, you will be taken on a shopping tour of Jaipur, which is famous for precious stones, block printing and fabrics. Return to the hotel and overnight in Jaipur.
